

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

SECOND SECTION

DECISION

Application no. 51274/07
Saime ÇAKIR against Turkey and 100 other applications
(see list appended)

The European Court of Human Rights (Second Section), sitting on 25 June 2013 as a Chamber composed of:

Guido Raimondi, President,
Danutė Jočienė,
Peer Lorenzen,
András Sajó,
Işıl Karakaş,
Nebojša Vučinić,
Helen Keller, judges,

and Stanley Naismith, Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above applications, listed in the Appendix,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

THE FACTS

A list of the applicants is set out in the Appendix. Additionally, the case and decision numbers of the impugned proceedings appear in the Appendix.

A. The circumstances of the case

The facts of the case, as submitted by the applicants, may be summarised as follows.

On various dates, the applicants initiated actions before the civil courts or proceedings were brought against them before the civil or criminal courts. The procedures lasted several years.

B. Relevant domestic law

A description of the relevant domestic law may be found in Müdür Turgut and Others ((dec.), no 4860/09, §§ 19-26, 26 March 2013).

COMPLAINTS

The applicants complained under Article 6 § 1 of the Convention that the proceedings before the national courts had not been concluded within a reasonable time.

Certain applicants also alleged violations of Article 13 of the Convention and Article 1 of Protocol No. 1 to the Convention.

THE LAW

A. Joinder of the applications

The Court first considers that in accordance with Rule 42 § 1 of the Rules of Court, the applications should be joined, given their common legal background.

B. Alleged violation of Article 6 § 1 of the Convention

The applicants complained that the length of the proceedings had been incompatible with the "reasonable time" requirement, laid down in Article 6 § 1 of the Convention, which reads as follows:

> "In the determination of his civil rights and obligations or of any criminal charge against him, everyone is entitled to a ... hearing within a reasonable time by a ... tribunal..."

The Court observes that the applicants asserted that the length of the proceedings had been incompatible with the principle of the "reasonable time" requirement in accordance with Article 6 § 1 of the Convention. The Court found in Müdür Turgut and Others ((dec.), cited above, §§ 58 and 60) that the Compensation Commission established by Law no. 6384, insofar as it is a priori accessible and capable of offering reasonable prospects of redress for complaints concerning the length of proceedings, constituted a remedy which applicants were required to exhaust for the purposes of Article 35 § 1 of the Convention. In the present cases the Court sees no reasons to come to a different conclusion.

It follows that these complaints must be rejected under Article 35 §§ 1 and 4 of the Convention for non-exhaustion of domestic remedies.

C. Alleged violation of Article 13 of the Convention

Some applicants also complained that there had been no effective remedy under Turkish law. They rely in this regard to Article 13 of the Convention, which provides:

> "Everyone whose rights and freedoms as set forth in this Convention are violated shall have an effective remedy before a national authority notwithstanding that the violation has been committed by persons acting in an official capacity."

The Court recalls that it has also held that the Compensation Commission established by Law no. 6384 provides for a remedy to the applicants within the meaning of Article 13 of the Convention to complain about the length of proceedings for the purposes of Article 6 § 1 of the Convention, relating to all applications pending before the Court submitted before 23 September 2012, and not yet communicated to the respondent Government (Müdür Turgut and Others (dec.), cited above, § 59).

It follows that these parts of the applications are manifestly ill-founded and must be rejected in accordance with Article 35 §§ 3 and 4 of the Convention.

D. Alleged violation of Article 1 of Protocol No. 1 to the Convention

Having carefully examined the applicants' complaints in the light of all the material in its possession, and in so far as the matter complained of is within its competence, the Court finds that it does not disclose any appearance of a violation of the rights and freedoms set out in the Convention or its Protocols.

It follows that these parts of the applications are manifestly ill-founded and must be rejected in accordance with Article 35 §§ 3 and 4 of the Convention.

For these reasons, the Court unanimously

Decides to join the applications;

Declares the applications inadmissible.
