SECOND SECTION

DECISION

This version was rectified on 20 February 2018 under Rule 81 of the Rules of Court.

Application no. 13077/13
Sertaç DİNDAR
against Turkey

The European Court of Human Rights (Second Section), sitting on 7 November 2017 as a Committee composed of:

Julia Laffranque, President,
Paul Lemmens,
Valeriu Griţco, judges,

and Hasan Bakırcı, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 20 December 2012,

Having regard to the formal declarations accepting a friendly settlement of the case,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

FACTS AND PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Sertaç Dindar, is a Turkish national, who was born in 1988. He was represented before the Court by Mr M. Bülbül, a lawyer practising in Ankara.

The Turkish Government ("the Government") were represented by their Agent.

The applicant complained under Article 5 § 1 (a) of the Convention about the disciplinary room confinement sanction which had been imposed on him by his military superiors.

On 12 May 2017 and 20 September 2017 the Court received friendly settlement declarations signed by the parties under which the applicant agreed to waive any further claims against Turkey in respect of the facts giving rise to this application against an undertaking by the Government to pay him 7,500 (seven thousand five hundred) Euros (EUR) to cover any pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage as well as EUR 500 (five hundred) for costs and expenses[1], which will be converted into Turkish liras at the rate applicable on the date of payment, and will be free of any taxes that may be applicable. It will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court. In the event of failure to pay this sum within the said three-month period, the Government undertook to pay simple interest on it, from the expiry of that period until settlement, at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points. The payment will constitute the final resolution of the case.

THE LAW

The Court takes note of the friendly settlement reached between the parties. It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols and finds no reasons that justify a continued examination of the application. In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court, unanimously,

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases in accordance with Article 39 of the Convention.
