

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

FIRST SECTION

DECISION

Application no. 5651/07
Sergey Vladimirovich SHKAYDUROV against Russia

The European Court of Human Rights (First Section), sitting on 2 July 2013 as a Committee composed of:

Khanlar Hajiyev, President,
Julia Laffranque,
Erik Møse, judges,

and André Wampach, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 25 December 2006,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

FACTS AND PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Sergey Vladimirovich Shkaydurov, is a Russian national, who was born in 1983 and lived until his arrest in Samara.

The Russian Government ("the Government") were represented by Mr G. Matyushkin, Representative of the Russian Federation at the European Court of Human Rights.

The applicant complained, in particular, under Article 5 §§ 3 and 4 of the Convention about the length of his pre-trial detention and inability to appeal against certain detention orders.

The applicant's complaints were communicated to the Government, who submitted their observations on the admissibility and merits. The observations were forwarded to the applicant, who was invited to submit his own observations. No reply was received to the Registry's letter.

By letter dated 11 February 2013, sent by registered post, the applicant's representative was notified that the period allowed for submission of the observations had expired on 10 January 2013 and that no extension of time had been requested. The representative's attention was drawn to Article 37 § 1 (a) of the Convention, which provides that the Court may strike a case out of its list of cases where the circumstances lead to the conclusion that the applicant does not intend to pursue the application. No response has been received to date.

THE LAW

The Court considers that, in these circumstances, the applicant may be regarded as no longer wishing to pursue his application, within the meaning of Article 37 § 1 (a) of the Convention. Furthermore, in accordance with Article 37 § 1 in fine, the Court finds no special circumstances regarding respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols which require the continued examination of the case.

In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court unanimously

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases.
