(Application no.31927/96)

STRASBOURG

4 October 2001

In the case of Serlenga v. Italy,

The European Court of Human Rights (Second Section), sitting as a Chamber composed of:

Mr C.L. ROZAKIS, President,

Mr A.B. BAKA,

Mr G. BONELLO,

Mrs M. TSATSA-NIKOLOVSKA,

Mr E. LEVITS,

Mr A. KOVLER, judges,

Mr G. RAIMONDI, ad hoc judge,

and Mr E. FRIBERGH, Section Registrar,

Having deliberated in private on 13 September 2001,

Delivers the following judgment, which was adopted on that date:

PROCEDURE

1. The case originated in an application (no. 31927/96) against Italy lodged with the European Commission of Human Rights (“the Commission”) under former Article 25 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (“the Convention”) by an Italian national, Mr Serafino Serlenga (“the applicant”), on 7 March 1996.

2. The applicant was represented by Mr P. Garreto, a lawyer practising in Turin. The Italian Government (“the Government”) were represented by their Agent, Mr U. Leanza, and by their co-agent, Mr V. Esposito.

3. The applicant complained about his prolonged inability - through lack of police assistance - to recover possession of his apartment and about the duration of the eviction proceedings.

4. On 22 March 2001, after obtaining the parties’ observations, the Court declared the application admissible.

5. On 11 June 2001 and on 25 June 2001, the applicant and the Agent of the Government respectively submitted formal declarations proposing a friendly settlement of the case.

THE FACTS

6. The applicant is the owner of an apartment in Turin, which he had let to G.G. In a registered letter of 19 March 1990, the applicant informed the tenant that he intended to terminate the lease on expiry of the term on 31 October 1990 and asked him to vacate the premises by that date.

7. In a writ served on the tenant on 1 March 1991, the applicant reiterated his intention to terminate the lease and summoned the tenant to appear before the Turin Magistrate.

8. By a decision of 25 March 1991, which was made enforceable on the same day, the Turin Magistrate upheld the validity of the notice to quit and ordered that the premises be vacated by 25 March 1992.

9. On 17 September 1992, the applicant made a statutory declaration that he urgently required the premises as accommodation for his son.

10. On 23 September 1992, he served notice on the tenant requiring him to vacate the premises.

11. On 21 October 1992, he served notice on the tenant informing him that the order for possession would be enforced by a bailiff on 11 December 1992.

12. Between 11 December 1992 and 23 October 1998, the bailiff made eighteen attempts to recover possession. Each attempt proved unsuccessful, as the applicant was never granted the assistance of the police in enforcing the order for possession.

13. At the beginning of January 1999, the tenant vacated the premises.

THE LAW

14. On 25 June 2001, the Court received the following declaration from the Government:

“I declare that the Government of Italy offer to pay 30,000,000 ITL to Mr Serafino Serlenga with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the application registered under no. 31927/96. This sum shall cover any pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage as well as costs, and it will be payable within three months starting from the notification of the judgment delivered by the Court pursuant to Article 39 of the European Convention on Human Rights. This payment will constitute the final resolution of the case.

This declaration does not entail any acknowledgement by the Government of a violation of the European Convention on Human Rights in the present case.

The Government further undertake not to request the reference of the case to the Grand Chamber under Article 43 § 1 of the Convention.”

15. On 11 June 2001, the Court received the following declaration signed by the applicant:

“I note that the Government of Italy are prepared to pay a sum totalling 30,000,000 ITL covering both pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage and costs to Mr Serafino Serlenga with a view to securing a friendly settlement of application no. 31927/96 pending before the Court.

I accept the proposal and waive any further claims in respect of Italy relating to the facts of this application. I declare that the case is definitely settled.

This declaration is made in the context of a friendly settlement which the Government and the applicant have reached.

I further undertake not to request the reference of the case to the Grand Chamber under Article 43 § 1 of the Convention after the delivery of the Court's judgment."

16. The Court takes note of the agreement reached between the parties (Article 39 of the Convention). It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention or its Protocols (Article 37 § 1 in fine of the Convention and Rule 62 § 3 of the Rules of Court).

17. Accordingly, the case should be struck out of the list.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE COURT UNANIMOUSLY

1. Decides to strike the case out of the list;
2. Takes note of the parties' undertaking not to request a rehearing of the case before the Grand Chamber.

Done in English, and notified in writing on 4 October 2001 pursuant to Rule 77 §§ 2 and 3 of the Rules of Court.
