

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

DEUXIÈME SECTION

DÉCISION

Requête no 34600/04
Ayşe DURUSOY contre la Turquie et 1283 autres requêtes
(voir liste en annexe)

La Cour européenne des droits de l'homme (deuxième section), siégeant le 21 mai 2013 en une chambre composée de :

Guido Raimondi, président,

Danutė Jočienė,

Peer Lorenzen,

Dragoljub Popović,

Işıl Karakaş,

Nebojša Vučinić,

Paulo Pinto de Albuquerque, juges,

et de Stanley Naismith, greffier de section,

Vu les requêtes susmentionnées introduite le 1er juillet 2004,

Après en avoir délibéré, rend la décision suivante :

EN FAIT

La liste des requérants figure en annexe.

A. Les circonstances de l'espèce

Les faits de la cause, tels qu'ils ont été exposés par les requérants, peuvent se résumer comme suit.

A diverses dates, les requérants introduisirent des actions devant les différentes juridictions civiles et administratives ou bien des procédures furent engagées contre eux devant les différentes juridictions pénales. Les procédures ainsi engagées durèrent plusieurs années voir décennies.

B. Le droit interne pertinent

Les dispositions pertinentes en l'espèce de la loi n° 6384 relative au règlement, par l'octroi d'une indemnité, de certaines requêtes introduites devant la Cour européenne des droits de l'homme (Avrupa İnsan Hakları Mahkemesine yapılmış bazı başvuruların tazminat ödenmek suretiyle çözümüne dair kanun – ci-après « la loi d'indemnisation ») adoptée par la Grande Assemblée nationale le 9 janvier 2013 et entrée en vigueur le 19 janvier 2013, figurent aux paragraphes 19 à 26 de la décision Müdür Turgut et autres c. Turquie ((déc.), n° 4860/09, §§ 19-26, 26 mars 2013).

GRIEFS

Invoquant l'article 6 § 1 de la Convention, les requérants allèguent que les procédures engagées contre eux ou bien celles qu'ils ont engagées de leur propre chef ont méconnu le principe du « délai raisonnable ».

Sur le terrain de l'article 13 de la Convention, certains requérants dénoncent en outre l'inexistence en Turquie d'une instance susceptible de connaître de plaintes relatives à la durée excessive d'une procédure.

EN DROIT

A. Sur la jonction des requêtes

La Cour décide, en application de l'article 42 § 1 de son règlement, de joindre les requêtes, eu égard à leur similitude quant aux faits et aux questions juridiques qu'elles posent.

B. Sur l'article 6 de la Convention

Les requérants allèguent que la durée des procédures a méconnu le principe du « délai raisonnable » énoncé à l'article 6 § 1 de la Convention, dont les dispositions pertinentes en l'espèce se lisent ainsi :

« 1. Toute personne a droit à ce que sa cause soit entendue (...) dans un délai raisonnable, par un tribunal (...) qui décidera (...), soit des contestations sur ses droits et obligations de caractère civil, soit du bien-fondé de toute accusation en matière pénale dirigée contre elle. »

La Cour rappelle qu'elle a déjà eu l'occasion de se prononcer sur des griefs similaires à ceux présentés par les requérants dans l'affaire Müdüir Turgut et autres ((déc.), précité, §§ 58 et 60). La Cour a conclu que les requérants, soutenant que la durée de la procédure a méconnu le principe du « délai raisonnable » et se plaignant de l'inexistence en Turquie d'une juridiction susceptible de connaître de plaintes relatives à la durée excessive d'une procédure, doivent, conformément à l'article 35 § 1 de la Convention, saisir la commission d'indemnisation instaurée par la loi n° 6384, dans la mesure où il s'agit, a priori, d'un recours accessible et susceptible de leur offrir des perspectives raisonnables de redressement de leurs griefs (Müdüir Turgut et autres, (déc.), précité, § 56).

C. Sur l'article 13 de la Convention

Certains requérants se plaignent également de l'absence en Turquie d'une voie de droit permettant de dénoncer la durée excessive d'une procédure. Ils invoquent à cet égard l'article 13 de la Convention, ainsi libellé :

« Toute personne dont les droits et libertés reconnus dans la (...) Convention ont été violés, a droit à l'octroi d'un recours effectif devant une instance nationale, alors même que la violation aurait été commise par des personnes agissant dans l'exercice de leurs fonctions officielles. »

La Cour rappelle qu'elle a également jugé que la commission d'indemnisation instaurée par la loi n° 6384 offre bien aux requérants un recours au sens de l'article 13 de la Convention leur permettant de se plaindre de la durée d'une procédure aux fins de l'article 6 § 1 de la Convention, concernant toutes les requêtes pendantes devant elle, non encore communiquées au gouvernement défendeur, introduites avant le 23 septembre 2012 (Müdüir Turgut et autres, (déc.), précité, § 59).

D. Appréciation de la Cour sur les cas d'espèce

La Cour a examiné les présentes affaires à la lumière de l'affaire Müdüir Turgut et autres, (déc.), précitée, et elle ne relève aucun fait ni argument ou aucune circonstance particulière pouvant mener à une conclusion différente dans les cas présents.

Partant, la Cour conclut que les griefs des requérants tirés du « délai raisonnable » doivent être rejetés pour non-épuisement des voies de recours internes, en application de l'article 35 §§ 1 et 4 de la Convention, et ceux de certains requérants tirés de l'article 13 de la Convention doivent être rejetés en application de l'article 35 §§ 3 (a) et 4 de la Convention.

Par ces motifs, la Cour, à l'unanimité,

Décide de joindre les requêtes ;

Déclare les requêtes irrecevables.
