Forthcoming Grand Chamber judgment concerning the question of just satisfaction in the Cyprus v. Turkey case

The European Court of Human Rights will be delivering a Grand Chamber judgment in the case of Cyprus v. Turkey (application no. 25781/94) concerning the question of just satisfaction (Article 41 of the European Convention on Human Rights) at a public hearing on 12 May 2014 at 15 p.m. - local time – in the Human Rights Building, Strasbourg.

The case concerns the situation in northern Cyprus since Turkey carried out military operations there in July and August 1974, and the continuing division of the territory of Cyprus since that time.

In a judgment delivered on 10 May 2001 the Court (Grand Chamber) found numerous violations of the Convention by Turkey, arising out of the military operations it had conducted in northern Cyprus in July and August 1974, the continuing division of the territory of Cyprus and the activities of the "Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus" (the "TRNC"). Regarding the issue of just satisfaction, the Court held unanimously that it was not ready for decision and adjourned its consideration.

The case concerning the execution of the principal judgment is currently pending before the Committee of Ministers.

The Grand Chamber will rule on the question of just satisfaction on 12 May 2014.
