

PRESS RELEASE

FORTHCOMING JUDGMENTS AND DECISIONS

ECHR 249 (2026) 15.10.2026

Press release issued by the Registrar of the Court

The European Court of Human Rights will be notifying in writing seven judgments on Tuesday 20 October 2026 and 72 judgments and / or decisions on Thursday 22 October 2026.

Press releases and texts of the judgments and decisions will be available at 10 a.m. (local time) on the Court's Internet site (www.echr.coe.int).

Tuesday 20 October 2026

Kapllanaj v. Albania (application no. 34859/24)

The applicant, Shaban Kapllanaj, is an Albanian national who was born in 1964 and lives in Tirana.

The case concerns the suicide of Mr Kapllanaj's son by jumping from an indoor service terrace at Tirana International Airport.

Relying on Article 2 (right to life) of the European Convention on Human Rights, Mr Kapllanaj complains that the national authorities failed to fulfil their duty ("positive obligation") to protect his son's life and failed in their procedural obligation to investigate his death.

Aksoy v. Serbia (no. 4320/15)

The applicant, Mehmet Alı Aksoy, is a Turkish national who was born in 1966 and lives in Stade (Germany).

The case concerns the confiscation of cash in excess of 10,000 euros (EUR) that the applicant had in his possession while transiting through Serbia, for having failed to declare it to the customs authorities.

The applicant complains that the confiscation, in addition to the imposition of a fine, constituted an unlawful and disproportionate interference with his right to the peaceful enjoyment of his property, in violation of Article 1 of Protocol No. 1 to the European Convention.

Güray Gür v. Türkiye (no. 33372/19)

The applicant, Güray Gür, is a Turkish national who was born in 1987 and who was in detention in Istanbul at the time of lodging his application.

The case concerns criminal proceedings against him that resulted in his being convicted of rape and false imprisonment.

Relying on Article 6 § 1 (right to a fair hearing) of the Convention, the applicant complains that the national courts failed to give adequate reasons for their decision to convict him.

Anna Poghosyan v. Armenia (no. 79920/17)

The applicant, Anna Poghosyan, is an Armenian national who was born in 1977 and lives in the Kotayk Region of Armenia.

The case concerns Ms Poghosyan's allegation that the Armenian Civil Court of Appeal lacked impartiality when examining her appeal in a civil dispute. She alleged that there were objectively justified doubts as to the impartiality of two of the three judges sitting on the bench, in view of the disciplinary sanctions imposed on them following a complaint lodged by her husband who had acted as counsel in one of their cases. Upon examining the applicant's recusal request, both judges refused to withdraw from sitting in the case.

The applicant complains under Article 6 § 1 of the Convention that she did not receive a fair hearing by an impartial tribunal because two judges of the Civil Court of Appeal had been biased against her husband and, consequently, against her.

Berlusconi v. Italy (no. 8683/14)

The case concerns Silvio Berlusconi's criminal conviction for a tax evasion scheme implemented through Mediaset S.p.a. and other companies in the same group, in connection with the purchase of television rights.

Mr Berlusconi, who died on 12 June 2023, relied on several Convention Articles, including, in particular, Articles 6 (right to a fair trial), 7 (no punishment without law) and 13 (right to an effective remedy), complaining mainly that the proceedings had been unfair and alleging that his conviction was unlawful.

Puşcaşu and Others v. Romania (nos. 2598/24, 2721/24, 11485/24, 13549/24 and 13550/24)

The case concerns a failure to fully implement court judgments ordering the Ministry of Justice to pay the applicants—who are professional judges—various sums of money as compensation for discriminatory salary treatment compared to that of other categories of civil servants.

Relying on Article 6 (access to a court) and Article 1 of Protocol No. 1 (protection of property), the applicants complain that the court judgments in their favour, which concerned various financial benefits, have not been fully implemented. They also allege a breach of their right of access to a court and their right to the peaceful enjoyment of their possessions.

Casali v. San Marino (nos. 12744/24 and 33586/24)

The applicant, Ingrid Casali, is a San Marinese national who was born in 1953 and lives in San Marino.

The case concerns criminal proceedings brought against her in relation to a Facebook post she authored concerning a politician.

Relying on Article 6 (right to a fair trial), the applicant complains that she was found guilty by a tribunal which was not established by law and about the fairness of her trial up to the appeal stage. She also complains of an interference with her freedom of expression under Article 10 of the Convention.

B.K. v. Switzerland (nos. 24268/21 and 55351/21)

The applicant, B.K., is a Swiss national who was born in 1995.

The case concerns B.K.'s complaints about the conditions of his detention in Pöschwies Prison (Switzerland) from August 2018 to March 2021, in particular when detained in solitary confinement. B.K. had spent a significant part of his youth in State care and correctional facilities before being remanded in custody in 2016. He was held in pre-trial and security detention in Pöschwies Prison because, among other things, he had attacked prison staff and destroyed or damaged the prison facilities. He was transferred to Zürich Prison in January 2022 and ultimately released in November 2023.

B.K. brings a number of complaints regarding his detention under Articles 3 (prohibition of inhuman or degrading treatment), 6 § 1 (right to a fair trial), 8 (right to respect for private and family life) and 13 (right to an effective remedy). In particular he complains about inadequate medical care and a decision refusing him one hour of outdoor activity at weekends and on public holidays.

The Court will give its rulings in writing on the following cases, some of which concern issues which have already been submitted to the Court, including excessive length of proceedings.

These rulings can be consulted from the day of their delivery on the Court's online database HUDOC. They will not appear in the press release issued on that day.
