Xenofontos and Others v. Cyprus \(applications nos. 68725/16, 74339/16, and 74359/16\)

The applicants, Grigoris Xenofontos, Anastasis Krasopoulos and his sister, Elli Krasopouli Skordelli, are three Cypriot nationals who were born in 1981, 1973 and 1968 respectively. They are currently serving life sentences in the Central Prison of Nicosia.

The case concerns the shooting dead of an executive of a private television channel and evidence against the applicants being provided by an accomplice who had been spared prosecution.

Relying on Article 6 § 1 (right to a fair trial) of the European Convention on Human Rights, the applicants complain that their trial was unfair, as the only evidence against them had come from that accomplice.

The Court will give its rulings in writing on the following cases, some of which concern issues which have already been submitted to the Court, including excessive length of proceedings.

These rulings can be consulted from the day of their delivery on the Court's online database HUDOC.

They will not appear in the press release issued on that day.
