EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

SECOND SECTION

DECISION

Application no. 9100/06
Mehmet Aytunç ALTAY against Turkey and 155 other applications
(see list appended)

The European Court of Human Rights (Second Section), sitting on 8 December 2015 as a Committee composed of:

Nebojša Vučinić, President,
Valeriu Griţco,
Stéphanie Mourou-Vikström, judges,
and Abel Campos, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above applications lodged on the various dates indicated in the appended table,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

THE FACTS

1. A list of the applicants and their representatives is set out in the appendix. The Turkish Government ("the Government") were represented by their Agent.

A. The circumstances of the case

2. The facts of the case, as submitted by the parties, may be summarised as follows.

3. The applicants were serving their prison sentences in various establishments at the time of lodging their applications. The educational committees of the respective prisons decided not to allow the applicants to receive certain editions of miscellaneous periodicals and/or other publications based on different grounds. In some applications, parts of periodicals were censored before they were handed over to the applicants.

4. The applicants' objections were rejected respectively by the enforcement judges and assize courts.

5. In application no. 13917/09, the applicant was also prevented by a decision of the prison's disciplinary board from sending a letter which he had written in Kurdish. The applicant's objections before the enforcement judge and the assize court were rejected respectively.

B. Relevant domestic law

1. Regarding the prisoners' right to receive periodicals

6. A full description of the domestic law and practice at the relevant time may be found in Mesut Yurtsever and Others v. Turkey (nos. 14946/08, 21030/08, 24309/08, 24505/08, 26964/08, 26966/08, 27088/08, 27090//08, 27092/08, 38752/08, 38778/08 and 38807/08, §§ 78-80, 20 January 2015).

2. Regarding the prisoners' right to correspondence

7. A full description of the domestic law and practice at the relevant time may be found in Mehmet Nuri Özen and Others v. Turkey (nos. 15672/08, 24462/08, 27559/08, 28302/08, 28312/08, 34823/08, 40738/08, 41124/08, 43197/08, 51938/08 and 58170/08, §§ 30-34, 11 January 2011).

3. Regarding the competency of the Compensation Commission established by Law no. 6384

8. A full description of domestic law may be found in Yıldız and Yanak v. Turkey ((dec.), no. 44013/07, §§ 9-17, 27 May 2014) and Özbil v. Turkey ((dec.), no. 45601/09, § 6, 29 September 2015).

COMPLAINTS

9. The applicants complained of a breach of their right to receive information as periodicals, newspapers and books had not been handed over to them in prison. In application no. 13917/09 the applicant further alleged that his letter had not been posted by the prison administration as he had written it in Kurdish. Some of the applicants further claimed that they had been subjected to discrimination on account of their Kurdish origin. Finally some of the applicants alleged that the domestic courts delivered their decisions on the basis of the case files, without holding a hearing, that the courts that had examined their cases had not been impartial and that the decisions lacked adequate reasoning. In connection with their complaints, the applicants relied on Articles 3, 6, 8, 10, 13 and 14 of the Convention.

THE LAW

10. Having regard to the similarity of the main issues under the Convention in the present cases, the Court decides to join the applications and consider them in a single decision.

11. The Government noted that following the pilot judgment procedure applied in the case of Ümmühan Kaplan v. Turkey (no. 24240/07, 20 March 2012), on 9 January 2013 the Turkish National Assembly enacted Law no. 6384 on the resolution, by means of compensation, of applications lodged with the Court concerning length of judicial proceedings and non-enforcement or delayed enforcement of judicial decisions. The competence of the Compensation Commission was subsequently enlarged by a decree adopted on 10 February 2014, and published in the Official Gazette on 16 March 2014 to examine complaints relating to, among other issues, complaints lodged by detainees/prisoners about the restriction of the right of detainees to correspondence/communicate in a language other than Turkish; and the refusal of the prison authorities to hand over periodicals based on different grounds. In the light of the foregoing, the Government asked the Court to reject the applications for non-exhaustion of domestic remedies, since the applicants had not applied to the Compensation Commission.

12. The Court observes that, as pointed out by the Government, a new domestic remedy has been established in Turkey. It further recalls that it has already examined similar applications and declared them inadmissible on the ground that the applicants had failed to exhaust domestic remedies, that is to say the new remedy (see Çelik v. Turkey (dec.), no. 23772/13, 16 June 2015 concerning restriction of detainees' correspondence in Kurdish, and Özbil v. Turkey (dec.), no. 45601/09, 29 September 2015, concerning refusal of prison authorities to provide periodicals). In so doing, the Court considered in particular that this new remedy was a priori accessible and capable of offering a reasonable prospect of redress for similar complaints.

13. As a result, taking into account the Government's preliminary objection with regard to the applicants' failure to make use of the new domestic remedy established by Law no. 6384, the Court reiterates its conclusion in the case of Turgut and Others v. Turkey ((dec.), no. 4860/09, 26 March 2013). It therefore concludes that these complaints should be rejected under Article 35 §§ 1 and 4 of the Convention for non-exhaustion of domestic remedies.

For these reasons, the Court, unanimously,

Decides to join the applications;

Declares the applications inadmissible.

Done in English and notified in writing on 14 January 2016.
