PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Adrian Brysz, is a Polish national, who was born in 1985 and lives in Tarnowskie Góry.

The Polish Government ("the Government") were represented by their Agent, Ms J. Chrzanowska of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The applicant complained in particular under Article 3 of the Convention about overcrowding and inadequate living conditions during his detention in Wołów Prison.

THE LAW

On 12 October 2012 the Court received the following declaration signed by the applicant:

> "I, Adrian Brysz, note that the Government of Poland are prepared to pay me, with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the above-mentioned case pending before the European Court of Human Rights, PLN 14,000 (fourteen thousand Polish zlotys) to cover any and all pecuniary and non pecuniary damage as well as costs and expenses, plus any tax that may be chargeable to me. The sum referred to above includes PLN 6,300 (six thousand three hundred Polish zlotys) which is to cover the costs and expenses of the proceedings before the domestic courts, which are payable by me to the State Treasury on account of the judgments of the Wrocław Regional Court of 15 April 2011 (case no. I C 453/08) and the Wrocław Court of Appeal of 20 July 2011 (case no. I A Ca 744/11).
>
> I further note that the payment constitutes redress for the systemic violation of Article 3 of the Convention on account of the conditions of my detention, in particular overcrowding, as identified by the Court in the pilot judgment given in the case of Orchowski v. Poland (no. 17885/04) on 22 October 2009 (see paragraphs 135 and 147 et seq.).
>
> This sum will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision by the Court pursuant to Article 39 of the European Convention on Human Rights. From the expiry of the above-mentioned three months until settlement simple interest shall be payable on the above amount at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points.
>
> I accept the proposal and waive any further claims against Poland in respect of the facts giving rise to this application. I declare that this constitutes a final resolution of the case"

On 27 November 2012 the Court received the following declaration from the Government:

> "I, Justyna Chrzanowska, Agent of the Government, declare that the Government of Poland offer to pay, to Mr Adrian Brysz, with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the above mentioned case pending before the European Court of Human Rights, PLN 14,000 (fourteen thousand Polish zlotys) to cover any and all pecuniary and non pecuniary damage as well as costs and expenses, plus any tax that may be chargeable to the applicant. The sum referred to above includes PLN 6,300 (six thousand three hundred Polish zlotys) which is to cover the costs and expenses of the proceedings before the domestic courts, which are payable by the applicant to the State Treasury on account of the judgments of the Wrocław Regional Court of 15 April 2011 (case no. I C 453/08) and the Wrocław Court of Appeal of 20 July 2011 (case no. I A Ca 744/11).
> The payment is intended to provide the applicant with redress for the systemic violation of Article 3 of the Convention on account of the conditions of his detention, in particular overcrowding, as identified by the Court in the pilot judgment given in the case of Orchowski v. Poland (no. 17885/04) on 22 October 2009 (see paragraphs 135 and 147 et seq.).

> This sum will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision by the Court pursuant to Article 39 of the European Convention on Human Rights. In the event of failure to pay this sum within the said three-month period, the Government undertake to pay simple interest on it, from expiry of that period until settlement, at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points. The payment will constitute the final resolution of the case."

The Court takes note of the friendly settlement reached between the parties. It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols and finds no reasons to justify a continued examination of the application. In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court unanimously

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases in accordance with Article 39 of the Convention.
