Dmitriy Yuryevich GRISHIN
against Russia

The European Court of Human Rights (Third Section), sitting on 9 January 2018 as a Committee composed of:

Branko Lubarda, President,
Pere Pastor Vilanova, Georgios A. Serghides, judges,
and Fatoş Aracı, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 21 August 2011,

Having regard to the formal declarations accepting a friendly settlement of the case,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

FACTS AND PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Dmitriy Yuryevich Grishin, is a Russian national, who was born in 1977 and lives in Moscow.

The Russian Government ("the Government") were represented by Mr G. Matyushkin, the Representative of the Russian Federation to the European Court of Human Rights, and then by his successor in that office, Mr M. Galperin.

The applicant complained under Article 5 §§ 1 and 5 of the Convention about his unlawful detention and lack of compensation thereof.

On 18 March 2016 the Government submitted a friendly settlement proposal under which the applicant agreed to waive any further claims against Russia in respect of the facts giving rise to this application against an undertaking by the Government to pay him 2,500 euros (EUR) to cover any pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage as well as costs and expenses, which will be converted into Russian roubles at the rate applicable on the date of payment, and will be free of any taxes that may be applicable. It will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court. In the event of failure to pay this sum within the said three-month period, the Government undertook to pay simple interest on it, from the expiry of that period until settlement, at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points. The payment will constitute the final resolution of the case.

By letter of 1 July 2017 the applicant informed the Court that he accepted the terms of the Government's proposal.

THE LAW

The Court takes note of the friendly settlement reached between the parties. It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols and finds no reasons to justify a continued examination of the application. In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court, unanimously,

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases in accordance with Article 39 of the Convention.

Done in English and notified in writing on 1 February 2018.
