

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

FIFTH SECTION

DECISION

Application no. 12259/12
Grygoriy Mykytovych OGNARYOV against Ukraine

The European Court of Human Rights (Fifth Section), sitting on 25 June 2013 as a Committee composed of:

Boštjan M. Zupančič, President,
Ann Power-Forde,
Helena Jäderblom, judges,

and Stephen Phillips, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 4 February 2012,

Having regard to the formal declarations accepting a friendly settlement of the case,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

FACTS AND PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Grygoriy Mykytovych Ognaryov, is a Ukrainian national, who was born in 1948 and lives in Svitlovodsk.

The Ukrainian Government ("the Government") were represented by their Agent, Mr N. Kulchytskyy, of the Ministry of Justice.

The applicant complained under Article 6 § 1 of the Convention about the length of the domestic proceedings. He further complained under Article 13 about the lack of an effective remedy in domestic law.

On 4 September 2012 and 15 November 2012 the Court received friendly settlement declarations signed by the parties under which the applicant agreed to waive any further claims against Ukraine in respect of the facts giving rise to this application against an undertaking by the Government to pay him 1,600 euros to cover any pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage as well as costs and expenses, which will be converted into the national currency of the respondent State at the rate applicable on the date of payment, will be free of any taxes that may be applicable and will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court. In the event of failure to pay this sum within the said three-month period, the Government undertook to pay simple interest on it, from the expiry of that period until settlement, at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points. The payment will constitute the final resolution of the case.

THE LAW

The Court takes note of the friendly settlement reached between the parties. It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols and finds no reasons to justify a continued examination of the application. In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court unanimously

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases in accordance with Article 39 of the Convention.
