DECISION

Application no. 63797/12
Sławomir Franciszek STEINKE against Poland

The European Court of Human Rights (Fourth Section), sitting on 2 June 2015 as a Committee composed of:

Päivi Hirvelä, President,
Faris Vehabović, Yonko Grozev, judges,

and Fatoş Aracı, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 13 September 2012,

Having regard to the formal declarations accepting a friendly settlement of the case,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Sławomir Franciszek Steinke, is a Polish national, who was born in 1957 and is currently detained in Łódź Remand Centre.

The Polish Government ("the Government") was represented by their Agent, Mrs Justyna Chrzanowska, of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The applicant complained under Article 3 of the Convention about overcrowding and inadequate living conditions during his detention in Łódź Remand Centre.

THE LAW

On 18 November 2014 the Court received the following declaration from the Government:

"I, Justyna Chrzanowska, Agent of the Government, declare that the Government of Poland offer to pay to Sławomir Franciszek Steinke, with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the above-mentioned case pending before the European Court of Human Rights PLN 10,000 (ten thousand Polish zlotys) to cover any and all pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage as well as costs and expenses, plus any tax that may be chargeable to the applicant.

The payment is intended to provide the applicant with redress for the systemic violation of Article 3 of the Convention on account of the conditions of his detention, in particular overcrowding, as identified by the Court in the pilot judgment given in the case of Orchowski v. Poland (no. 17885/04) on 22 October 2009 (see paragraphs 135 and 147 et seq.).

This sum will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court to strike the case out of its list of cases. In the event of failure to pay this sum within the said three-month period, the Government undertake to pay simple interest on it, from expiry of that period until settlement, at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points. The payment will constitute the final resolution of the case."

On 24 February 2015 the Court received the following declaration signed by the applicant:

"I, Sławomir Franciszek Steinke, note that the Government of Poland are prepared to pay me, with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the above-mentioned case pending before the European Court of Human Rights, PLN 10,000 (ten thousand Polish zlotys)], to cover any and all pecuniary and non-pecuniary damage as well as costs and expenses, plus any tax that may be chargeable to me.

I further note that the payment constitutes redress for the systemic violation of Article 3 of the Convention on account of the conditions of my detention, in particular overcrowding, as identified by the Court in the pilot judgment given in the case of Orchowski v. Poland (no. 17885/04) on 22 October 2009 (see paragraphs 135 and 147 et seq.).

This sum will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court to strike the case out of its list of cases. From the expiry of the above-mentioned three months until settlement simple interest shall be payable on the above amount at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points.

I accept the proposal and waive any further claims against Poland in respect of the facts giving rise to this application. I declare that this constitutes a final resolution of the case."

The Court takes note of the friendly settlement reached between the parties. It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols and finds no reasons to justify a continued examination of the application. In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court, unanimously,

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases in accordance with Article 39 of the Convention.

Done in English and notified in writing on 25 June 2015.
