against Poland

The European Court of Human Rights (Fourth Section), sitting on 24 May 2011 as a Committee composed of:

Ljiljana Mijović, President,
Lech Garlicki,
Nebojša Vučinić, judges,

and Fatoş Aracı, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 15 April 2009,

Having regard to the formal declarations accepting a friendly settlement of the case,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Marcin Wardziński, is a Polish national who was born in 1977 and lives in Warszawa. The Polish Government ("the Government") were represented by their Agent, Mr Jakub Wołąsiewicz of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

On 7 February 2011 the President of the Fourth Section of the Court decided to communicate under Article 5 § 3 of the Convention the applicant's complaint concerning the length of his pre-trial detention. The applicant was detained for almost three years, from 22 December 2006 to 3 December 2009.

COMPLAINTS

1. The applicant complained under Article 5 § 3 of the Convention about the excessive length of his pre-trial detention.

2. He further complained, invoking Article 6 § 1of the Convention, about the unreasonable length of the criminal proceedings.

3. Lastly, the applicant invoked Articles 1, 5 §§ 1(c) and 5 and 6 § 2 of the Convention, alleging that the principle of the presumption of innocence had been breached by the domestic courts.

THE LAW

On 14 April 2011 the Court received the following declaration from the Government:

> "I, Jakub Wołąsiewicz, Agent of the Government, declare that the Government of Poland offer to pay, to Mr Marcin Wardziński, with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the above-mentioned case pending before the European Court of Human Rights, PLN 4,000 (four thousand Polish zlotys), plus any tax that may be chargeable to the applicant.
> This sum will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court pursuant to Article 37 § 1 of the European Convention on Human Rights. In the event of failure to pay this sum within the said three-month period, the Government undertake to pay simple interest on it, from expiry of that period until settlement, at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points. The payment will constitute the final resolution of the case."

On 7 March 2011 the Court received the following declaration signed by the applicant:

> "I, Marcin Wardziński, note that the Government of Poland are prepared to pay me, with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the above-mentioned case pending before the European Court of Human Rights, PLN 4,000 (four thousand Polish zlotys), plus any tax that may be chargeable to the applicant.
> This sum will be payable within three months from the date of notification of the decision taken by the Court pursuant to Article 37 § 1 of the European Convention on Human Rights. From the expiry of the above-mentioned three months until settlement simple interest shall be payable on the above amount at a rate equal to the marginal lending rate of the European Central Bank during the default period plus three percentage points.
> I accept the proposal and waive any further claims against Poland in respect of the facts giving rise to this application. I declare that this constitutes a final resolution of the case."

The Court takes note of the friendly settlement reached between the parties. It is satisfied that the settlement is based on respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols and finds no reasons to justify a continued examination of the application (Article 37 § 1 in fine of the Convention).

In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court unanimously

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases.
