

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

FIRST SECTION

DECISION

Application no. 25760/08
Adalat Ali Ogly ALIYEV against Russia

The European Court of Human Rights (First Section), sitting on 27 November 2012 as a Committee composed of:

Elisabeth Steiner, President,

Mirjana Lazarova Trajkovska,

Linos-Alexandre Sicilianos, judges, and André Wampach, Deputy Section Registrar,

Having regard to the above application lodged on 3 April 2008,

Having deliberated, decides as follows:

FACTS AND PROCEDURE

The applicant, Mr Adalat Ali Ogly Aliyev, is a Russian national, who was born in 1974 and lives in Abakan.

The Russian Government (“the Government”) were represented by Mr G. Matyushkin, the Representative of the Russian Federation at the European Court of Human Rights.

The applicant complained under Article 3 and Article 13 taken in conjunction with Article 3 of the Convention that he was ill-treated by the police and that there was no effective investigation into the matter.

The applicant’s relevant complaints were communicated to the Government, who submitted their observations on the admissibility and merits. The observations were forwarded to the applicant, who was invited to submit his own observations. No reply was received to the Registry’s letter.

By letter dated 25 April 2012, sent by registered post, the applicant was notified that the period allowed for submission of his observations had expired on 23 November 2011 and that no extension of time had been requested. The applicant's attention was drawn to Article 37 § 1 (a) of the Convention, which provides that the Court may strike a case out of its list of cases where the circumstances lead to the conclusion that the applicant does not intend to pursue the application. This letter was returned to the Court as unclaimed.

THE LAW

The Court considers that, in these circumstances, the applicant may be regarded as no longer wishing to pursue his application, within the meaning of Article 37 § 1 (a) of the Convention. Furthermore, in accordance with Article 37 § 1 in fine, the Court finds no special circumstances regarding respect for human rights as defined in the Convention and its Protocols which require the continued examination of the case.

In view of the above, it is appropriate to strike the case out of the list.

For these reasons, the Court unanimously

Decides to strike the application out of its list of cases.
